Notes:

Students who qualify for a 3-credit practicum because of their educational experience may choose the remaining 3 credits from courses designated by the graduate nursing program.

Admissions & Policies

Admissions

Applicants must hold a master's degree in nursing. Applicants must meet the admission standards and application requirements specified in Graduate Admissions (<http://catalog.gmu.edu/admissions/graduate-policies/>) and apply using the Application for Graduate Admission (<https://www2.gmu.edu/admissions-aid/>). Acceptance to the nursing program is contingent upon admission to the university. The application process is competitive, and applications are considered for the fall and spring semesters. For application deadlines and detailed application requirements, please refer to the College of Public Health Admissions (<https://publichealth.gmu.edu/admissions/graduate-admissions/standards-requirements-and-deadlines/>) website.

Policies

For policies governing all graduate certificates, see AP.6.8 Requirements for Graduate Certificates (<http://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/academic/graduate-policies/#ap-6-8>).
