

CONFLICT ANALYSIS AND RESOLUTION (CONF)

100 Level Courses

CONF 101: Conflict and Our World. 3 credits.

Brief history of field, survey of key conflict resolution themes and theories, and intervention methods. Overview includes general factors of conflict and its resolution; and nature of conflict in interpersonal, group, organizational, and international situations. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Mason Core: Social/Behavioral Sciences

Schedule Type: Lecture, Recitation

200 Level Courses

CONF 210: Theories of Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Students will utilize critical thinking and analytical skills to begin an in-depth examination of the major theories of conflict analysis and resolution. Theories and case studies will include root causes and dynamics of conflict and methods of conflict analysis and resolution. Notes: Required course for all CONF majors (BA and BS) beginning Fall 2011. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Lecture

300 Level Courses

CONF 300: Conflict Resolution Techniques and Practice. 3 credits.

Advanced consideration of CONF 101 topics, introduction of core notion of reflective practice, conflict resolution techniques, practice, third party roles, and ethics. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 301: Research and Inquiry in Conflict Resolution. 3 credits.

Introduces social science research methods at undergraduate level. Covers basic epistemology of social research, including quantitative and qualitative methods, emphasizing participatory action research, and evaluation and assessment work. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 302: Culture, Identity, and Conflict. 3 credits.

Covers deeply rooted, intractable, or protracted social conflicts around core issues of identity, including race, ethnicity, religion, and nationalism. Explores cultural, symbolic, and discursive approaches to identity conflict. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Specialized Designation: Writing Intensive in the Major

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 310: Special Topics in Practice. 1-6 credits.

Examines selected topics related to practice in the field of conflict analysis and resolution. Topics vary, but will address practical skills and knowledge base necessary to conflict resolution practice. Notes: May be repeated if topics vary. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the term for a maximum 6 credits.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 314: Advising Seminar for Conflict Majors. 1 credit.

Examines issues and opportunities relevant to CONF majors to enhance their overall success in the program. Topics may include academic planning, field experience processes, critical thinking in coursework, career exploration and readiness, and co-curricular opportunities. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit. Equivalent to CONF 190.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 320: Interpersonal Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Covers conflict at micro level, introducing theories drawn from various disciplines including psychology, anthropology, and conflict resolution. Uses readings, case studies, and role plays to develop ability to analyze and intervene in interpersonal conflicts. Also prepares for further course work for interpersonal conflict concentration. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 325: Dialogue and Difference. 3 credits.

Covers challenges of communicating across differences of age, gender, language, culture, political orientation, and contextual situations. Students will engage in preparing and analyzing communication strategies in conflict situations and will participate in a dialogue over the term that explores the meaning and experience of difference on the Mason campus. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 330: Community, Group, and Organizational Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Covers conflict at mezzo level, introducing theories of social harmony and conflict, drawing on sociology, social psychology, community psychology, organizational psychology, administration of justice, philosophy, and conflict resolution. Uses case studies, class presentations, and group projects to develop ability to analyze conflict and make recommendations for change. Also prepares for further course work for community and organizational conflict concentration. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 101 and 210 or permission of instructor.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 331: Simulation in Community and Organizational Conflict Resolution. 1 credit.

Builds on the theories and concepts presented in CONF 330 to focus on the practice of group and community conflict. Through intensive simulations using conflict cases, students will have the opportunity to practice conflict resolution skills such as dialogue, problem solving, mediation and negotiation and gain a practical understanding of third party roles and intervention strategies in community, group, and organizational settings. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Laboratory

CONF 340: Global Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Covers conflict at macro level, introducing theories of international and global violence and conflict, drawing from disciplines of international relations, political science, intercultural communication, and conflict resolution. Covers impact of globalization and structural causes of conflict. Uses class discussions, case studies, and final paper to develop analytical skills to help in analysis of conflict. Prepares for further course work for international conflict concentration. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Lecture, Recitation

CONF 341: Simulation in Global Conflict Resolution. 1 credit.

Focuses primarily on global conflict resolution practice. Using the methodologies of dialogue, problem-solving, and intensive simulation, students will increase their theoretical and practical understanding of peace making, peace building, and transformation processes within a specific international case. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 2 credits.

Schedule Type: Laboratory

CONF 345: Social Dynamics of Terrorism, Security, and Justice. 3 credits.

Presents students with analytical frameworks to account for terrorist acts and organizations and explore social dynamics underlying the development of, and response to, terrorism. Topics may include recruitment into violent groups, counterterrorism and human rights concerns, role of religious and political ideologies in terrorism and counterterrorism, media coverage of terrorism, and effects of terrorism on social structures and processes. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 370: Internship Field Experience. 1-9 credits.

Internships will provide an opportunity for students to gain practical experience, reflect on those experiences, and apply academic theories outside of the normal classroom environment. Students will apply academic theories learned in the classroom to situations that arise in the work environment. Students must obtain approval and complete an internship proposal application in order to be registered for the course. Notes: Course does not have a regular meeting time; students submit work via blog and e-mail; some meetings with instructor. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 9 credits.

Schedule Type: Internship

CONF 375: Special Programs Field Experience. 1-6 credits.

Learning experience in the application of conflict analysis and resolution (CAR) skills in special program settings. Provides supervised practice in CAR techniques, leadership, program implementation, and strategies to facilitate conflict resolution in educational institutions or community settings. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 6 credits.

Schedule Type: Fieldwork

CONF 385: International Field Experience. 3 credits.

Investigates conflict theory through international field experience including participation in formally organized course offered by Center for Global Education or another form of international field experience approved by program director. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 6 credits.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 101 and permission of advisor.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 386: Context and Synthesis: Study Abroad. 1 credit.

Investigate conflict theory through cross cultural experience which includes participation in formally organized semester abroad programs offered by Center for Global Education or another form of international field experience approved by the program director. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 2 credits.

Schedule Type: Independent Study

CONF 393: Philosophy, Conflict Theory, and Violence. 3 credits.

Examines causes, sources, and origins of group violence with particular attention to group violence of ethnicity conflict. Explores alternative proposals that explain why violence becomes primary, or at least viable, form of revolving conflict in some societies. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 101 or permission of instructor.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 394: Human Rights and Inequality. 3 credits.

CONF 397: Study Abroad Special Topics. 1-9 credits.

Transfer credit for relevant coursework taken during direct exchange study abroad trips. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the term for a maximum 12 credits.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 398: Special Topics in Advanced Techniques and Practices. 3 credits.

Examines selected topics relating to conflict resolution techniques and practices. Topics vary but may include mediation, negotiation, reflective practice, and facilitation. Notes: May be repeated if topics vary. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the term for a maximum 9 credits.

Schedule Type: Lecture

CONF 399: Special Topics in Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Examines selected topics relating to analysis or resolution of conflict. Topics vary but may include historical examination of conflict, social issues stemming from conflict, ethical issues in intervention, globalization, human rights, sources of conflict, or relationship of particular identity domains to conflict. Notes: May be repeated if topics vary. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the term for a maximum 9 credits.

Schedule Type: Lecture

400 Level Courses

CONF 425: Mediating Conflict. 3 credits.

A skill development course connecting conflict resolution theory and practice to the mediation process through lectures, discussion, self-reflection, experiential learning, and role-plays. This course has been approved to meet the 20-hour basic education requirements for mediation certification by the Judicial Council of Virginia and the Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 435: Building Peace in Divided Societies. 3 credits.

A major challenge to peacebuilding efforts domestically and globally are the boundaries that communities believe separates themselves from others. The boundaries have ethnic, racial, religious or cultural roots, often with long histories of division and violence. This class will examine case studies and strategies from around the globe of peacebuilding in complex communities. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 485: Service Learning Intensive. 1-9 credits.

Provides students with real-world setting to link conflict theory to resolution practice. Students will engage with grassroots organizations in conflict assessment, resolution process designs, trainings, and project implementation in domestic and international settings. Notes: May require additional fees. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the term for a maximum 12 credits.

Schedule Type: Fieldwork

CONF 490: RS: Integration. 3 credits.

Capstone course in which students reflect on what they have learned, integrating knowledge from course work and synthesizing it to cogent body of knowledge. Includes class discussion and final project that demonstrates understanding of conflict theory and reflective practice. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Mason Core: Synthesis

Specialized Designation: Research/Scholarship Intensive

Registration Restrictions:

Required Prerequisite: CONF 301^C.

^C Requires minimum grade of C.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 499: Independent Research in Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 1-6 credits.

Readings and research conducted on individual basis in consultation with instructor. Notes: Student may not present more than 3 credits for graduation credit. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 6 credits.

Schedule Type: Independent Study

500 Level Courses

CONF 501: Introduction to Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Prerequisite or corequisite for all MS CONF majors. Introduces field of conflict analysis and resolution. Examines definitions of conflict and diverse views of its "resolution." Explores thinking about human behavior, and social systems as they relate to origins of conflict and role of conflict in violent and peaceful social change. Considers appropriate responses to conflict at interpersonal, intergroup, industrial, communal, and international levels. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 502: Intensive Introduction to Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Introduces field of conflict analysis and resolution. Examines the origins of social conflict, the practices and strategies for responding to conflict, and frameworks for constructive intervention. Considers interpersonal, community, and large-scale intergroup conflict. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 595: Special Topics. 1-3 credits.

Topics vary each semester and are announced each academic year. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the term for a maximum 9 credits.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

600 Level Courses

CONF 600: Foundations of Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 6 credits.

This course offers an integration of theory, research and practice to investigate the inner workings of our field. It includes conflict theories, models and modes of practice that function as the grounding to subsequent courses in the curriculum, and exploration of some of the key contemporary debates. The course includes opportunities for linking theory to practice with experimental learning activities. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 601: Theories of Conflict and Conflict Resolution. 3 credits. Examines major theories of conflict causation and motivation. Emphasizes need for theories to inform processes of conflict resolution. Weaves together ideas from conventional disciplines with new approaches, especially with regard to causes and methods of resolving deep-rooted conflict. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 610: Conflict Inquiry. 3 credits. Introduces students to the philosophies behind social science research and the methods for conducting research in the field of conflict resolution. Focuses on the identification of research problems associated with particular conflict situations, selection of appropriate research methods, and the design of effective research projects. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 600.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 611: MS-Research II. 3 credits. Guides students through design, execution, interpretation, analysis, presentation, and evaluation of field research in conflict and resolution. Builds on CONF 610. Notes: Builds on CONF 610. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 and 610.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 620: Reflective Practice in Interpersonal-Multiparty Conflicts. 3 credits. Introductory skill-building course integrating conflict theory and practice using reflective practitioner model. Students learn necessary skills for third-party facilitation and mediation, including active listening, empathy, paraphrasing, reframing, and negotiation, in addition to analytical skills of problem solving and creation of transformational processes. Cases for practice focus on interpersonal and intergroup conflict. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit. Equivalent to CONF 713.

Recommended Corequisite: CONF 501.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Laboratory

CONF 621: Reflective Practice in Organizational or Community Conflict. 3 credits. Moves from conflicts that are simply described to those with multilevel components, such as community and organizational conflicts. Expands skills acquired in CONF 620 by adding recording chronology, identifying roles played by various participants, observing turning points in process, and precisely stating agreed-on solution. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Corequisite: CONF 501 and CONF 620.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Laboratory

CONF 622: Reflective Practice in International Conflict and Civil Strife. 3 credits.

Continues study of resolution processes as applied to highly complex systems, especially where one party denies legitimacy of existing political authority. Considers third-party options for intervention in revolutionary and international conflicts, building communication and trust among parties, and implementing agreements. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Corequisite: CONF 501 and CONF 620.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Laboratory

CONF 625: Engaging Conflict. 3 credits.

This course will provide students an experiential opportunity to consider the relationship between social science theories and conflict analysis and resolution work; and engagement in a variety of forms with real world conflict. Each course will provide students the opportunity to engage in research and practice activities, choosing the appropriate modalities for the conflict they are engaging with. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 12 credits.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 600.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Fieldwork

CONF 642: Integration of Theory and Practice. 3 credits.

Taken in last semester of master's student course work. Assists in developing students' own theories of conflict and conflict resolution by reviewing and integrating prior course work. Students expected to demonstrate holistic comprehension by writing major essay of publishable quality. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501, 601, 610, 713. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 643: Practicum: Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501, 613, 623, 633, and permission of instructor. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 650: Conflict Analysis and Resolution Advanced Skills. 3 credits.

Introduces innovative practices and provides structure to reflect on and improve ability to work within conflict settings. Considers the intersection of theory and practice, with special attention to the challenges of translation, adaptation, and transfer of skills and models. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or CONF 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 651: Collaborative Community Action & Participatory Governance. 3 credits.

Covers designing collaborative processes to work with diverse stakeholders to build meaningful and lasting shared agreements. Considers applications in land use, development, or other community planning contexts. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Specialized Designation: Green Leaf Course

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or CONF 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 652: Conflict Analysis and Resolution for Prevention, Reconstruction, and Stabilization Contexts. 3 credits.

Considers conflict analysis and resolution approaches to designing, implementing, and evaluating holistic cross-sectoral, conflict-sensitive initiatives in areas of potential violence and postconflict reconstruction and stabilization contexts. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or CONF 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 653: World Religions, Diplomacy, and Conflict Resolution. 3 credits.

Analyzes ways world religions play role in conflicts, war, diplomacy, peacemaking, and conflict resolution. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or CONF 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 656: Integrating Complementary Approaches in Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits.

Considers designs and methods for conflict analysis and resolution that integrate multiple approaches, stakeholders, and methods. Applies to social conflicts in local and international contexts. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or CONF 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 657: Facilitation Skills. 3 credits.

Covers range of skills in group facilitation processes, with emphasis on conflict analysis and resolution approaches to improve group communication. Includes skill-building exercises. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science or Conflict Analysis Resolution colleges.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 659: Leadership in Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits. Covers roles and styles of leadership in interpersonal, organizational, community, group, and international conflicts. Considers cultural roles of leaders as insider-partials, negotiators, facilitators, and mediators. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or CONF 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 660: Conflict Assessment and Program Evaluation. 3 credits. Covers assessment methods appropriate to conflict contexts and related evaluation approaches and techniques for use in areas of peace building, community processes, or interpersonal conflict. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or 502. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science or Conflict Analysis Resolution colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 665: Special Topics in Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits. In-depth study of contemporary areas of conflict resolution practice. Notes: Fulfills elective requirement for certificate program. Topics vary. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 6 credits.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 502, or permission of instructor.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution college.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 668: Applied Integration for Graduate Certificates. 3 credits. Capstone course facilitating integration of learning in the graduate certificate programs and appropriate mentored application and experiential learning. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or 502; CONF 660; and CONF 650, 651, 652, or 653.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science or Conflict Analysis Resolution colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 682: Principles of Environmental Conflict Resolution. 3 credits. Explores the nature and characteristics of environmental conflict and efforts to manage, resolve or transform it. Students will develop a capacity to assess the strengths and weaknesses of environmental conflict resolution processes while learning about best practices for preventing, preparing for, and addressing environmental conflict. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit. Equivalent to EVPP 682.

Specialized Designation: Green Leaf Course

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 and CONF 502, or permission of instructor.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree, Undergraduate or Washington Consortium level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 683: Environmental Conflict Resolution: Situation Assessment, Process Design and Best Practices. 3 credits. Explores best practices for managing, resolving, and transforming environmental conflict using environmental conflict resolution (ECR) processes. Nature and dynamics of environmental disputes, methods for assessing conflict situations, and methods for conducting various forms of ECR processes will be covered in the context of selected case studies with emphasis on student involvement. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit. Equivalent to EVPP 683.

Specialized Designation: Green Leaf Course

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 682 or EVPP 682, or permission of instructor.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 684: Environmental Conflict Resolution and Collaboration: Leadership Practicum/Capstone. 3 credits.

Capstone course for the Graduate Certificate in Environmental Conflict Resolution and Collaboration. Under supervision of the instructor, students will undertake an assessment of an active environmental conflict and recommend a range of processes that promote identified goals for preferred conflict outcomes. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit. Equivalent to EVPP 684.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 682 or EVPP 682 and CONF 683 or EVPP 683.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate, Non Degree or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate, Non-Degree or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 690: Practicum in Conflict Analysis and Resolution. 3 credits. In-depth field study of ongoing conflict situations, and design and delivery of intervention processes to manage or resolve conflicts. Notes: Two semesters, 3 credits per semester. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May be repeated within the degree for a maximum 6 credits.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 501 or 801, 713 (714 or 715 recommended but not required) or permission of instructor. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students with a class of Advanced to Candidacy, Graduate or Senior Plus.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate or Undergraduate level students.

Students in a Non-Degree Undergraduate degree may not enroll.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Considers appropriate responses to conflict at interpersonal, intergroup, industrial, communal, and international levels. Notes: Prerequisite or corequisite for all PhD CONF students. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students in the PHD Conf Analysis Resolution program.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate level students.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 802: Theories of the Person. 3 credits. Understanding human conflict requires knowledge of human behavior, motivation, and perception. Reviews and critically analyzes several psychological theories for application to conflict analysis and resolution theory and practice. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 801. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students in the PHD Conf Analysis Resolution program.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate level students.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 803: Structural Theories. 3 credits. Understanding social conflict and potential for conflict resolution requires that both conflict and cooperation be perceived in relation to patterns of social change. Reviews and critiques significant theories of social change to establish a basis for creative conflict analysis and resolution. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 801. Concurrent enrollment is also permitted.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students in the PHD Conf Analysis Resolution program.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate level students.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 804: Alternate Theoretical Foundations. 3 credits. Familiarizes students with the ideas generated by the Frankfurt School of social theorists and others who have extended or altered these ideas. Students will use these insights to deepen an understanding of serious social conflicts and to explore the implications of critical theories for conflict resolution processes. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Corequisite: CONF 801.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students in the PHD Conf Analysis Resolution program.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate level students.

Enrollment limited to students in a Doctor of Philosophy degree.

Enrollment limited to students in the Conflict Analysis Resolution college.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 811: Quantitative Foundations. 3 credits. Building on logic of inquiry, introduces steps in research process to prepare dissertation and implement published research. Covers wide array of quantitative research approaches in social sciences, with emphasis on conflict analysis. Offered by Conflict Analysis & Resolution. May not be repeated for credit.

Recommended Prerequisite: CONF 711, 801, and 810.

Registration Restrictions:

Enrollment limited to students in the PHD Conf Analysis Resolution program.

Enrollment is limited to Graduate level students.

Enrollment limited to students in the Coll Nursing Health Science, Conflict Analysis Resolution or Health and Human Services colleges.

Schedule Type: Seminar

CONF 812: Qualitative Foundations: Social Sciences. 3 credits. Continuation of steps in research process to prepare dissertation and implement published research.
