- Bret Johnson, Academic Director

The 12-credit Graduate Certificate in Accounting for Government Contracts provides an opportunity for students to acquire education in the field of government accounting with a federal government contracting emphasis. George Mason is uniquely situated in the federal government space. Additionally, courses in the certificate program will also help prepare students to sit for the Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM) exams sponsored by the Association of Government Accountants (AGA). Courses taken in the Graduate Certificate in Accounting for Government Contracts can be applied towards the Master of Science in Accounting. To verify if this certificate currently qualifies for Title IV Federal Financial Aid please visit the unit website (<https://business.gmu.edu/programs/graduate/admissions/>).
