The Graduate School of Education (GSE) offers one doctoral degree, five master’s degrees, one bachelor’s degree, nine minors, six undergraduate certificates, twelve accelerated master’s programs and thirty-seven graduate certificates. Within each degree program students have the option to choose a concentration that best meets their interests or needs. Additionally, students may pursue coursework leading to initial teacher licensure. Students can pursue a Master’s degree and one graduate certificate concurrently.

Collaborative Undergraduate Degree Licensure Programs

GSE supports undergraduate students from a variety of disciplines interested in education and teacher licensure. Nine collaborative undergraduate degree licensure programs are available including undergraduate certificates and the programs below.
