Undergraduate Programs
Theater BA and BFA
The School of Theater offers BA and BFA degrees and prepares students for graduate study or entry into the profession through rigorous, concentrated, and individualized training; however, students are encouraged to maintain wide-ranging interests within the school and throughout the university's extensive offerings. Theater majors organize their advanced work within the major to include classes in areas of emphasis including performance, design and technical theater, and other theater studies.

Theater BA Concentrations
Theater majors must choose to complete their Bachelor of Arts degree with a concentration in one of the following areas: Design and Technical Theater, Performance (Acting and Directing), Playwriting and Dramaturgy, Theater Education for Theater Arts PK-12, or Theater Studies. Students must earn a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA to complete a BA with a concentration.

Certification for Theater Education for Theater Arts PK-12
The Theater Education for Theater Arts PK-12 concentration is approved by the Virginia State Department of Education and administered through the College of Education and Human Development, which is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). Upon degree conferral and completion of all requirements, students may be eligible to apply for Virginia State Licensure. Minimum scores on the Praxis Core and VCLA tests must be achieved before state licensure is granted.

Students must be formally accepted into the Theater Education for Theater Arts PK-12 concentration.

Theater BFA Concentrations
In addition to the Mason Core requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree, students in the Theater BFA must complete a minimum of 76 credits in the major: 46 credits of required core courses and 30 credits in a concentration. Concentrations are: Design for Stage and Screen, Musical Theater Performance, Performance for Stage and Screen (Acting and Directing), Writing and Dramaturgy for Stage and Screen. All students pursuing a BFA in Theater must earn a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA for graduation.

Graduate Programs
Accelerated Master's Program
The School of Theater offers a Theater, BA/Arts Management, Accelerated MA option which allows undergraduate students to take graduate classes that can be used towards a designated Master's degree. Undergraduates who wish to pursue the accelerated Master's route should talk to their academic advisor first to see if they qualify.
Writing-Intensive Requirement
The university requires all students to complete at least one course designated writing-intensive in their major at the 300 level or above. Students seeking a BA or BFA in theater fulfill this requirement by successfully completing THR 350 Script Analysis or THR 482 Advanced Screenplay Workshop.

Production Requirements
Participation in Theater at Mason productions is expected of all declared majors. Students must have a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA to participate in Theater at Mason productions.

Students must also earn four (4) practicum credits, one (1) credit for satisfactory completion (a minimum of 30 hours) of each of four (4) performance and production assignments in the major, including faculty or guest-directed Mason Players Mainstage, and student-directed Studio productions.

All freshmen, first year transfer, and new Theater majors must register for THR 198 Theatrical Construction Practicum and THR 199 Production Run Crew Practicum during their first academic year.

Assignments for THR 196 Performance or Design Practicum and THR 197 Stage or Literary Practicum will include a presentation of portfolio documents demonstrating a practical analysis of the role, design, or support position to subject area mentors.

- THR 196 Performance or Design Practicum assignments include actor, designer, assistant designer, stage manager, and assistant stage manager.
- THR 197 Stage or Literary Practicum assignments include director, assistant director, dramaturg, master electrician, technical director, playwright, house management, and publicity.
- THR 198 Theatrical Construction Practicum assignments include scenery construction and painting, costume construction, electrician, and props.
- THR 199 Production Run Crew Practicum assignments include stage crew, light board operator, sound board operator, wardrobe, and fly crew.

Unless registered for a Theater course approved as directly connected to production (i.e. THR 196 Performance or Design Practicum, THR 197 Stage or Literary Practicum, THR 198 Theatrical Construction Practicum, THR 199 Production Run Crew Practicum, THR 492 Studio Project or THR 495 Senior Capstone Project) all students (including non-Theater majors) electing to participate in a Theater at Mason production must register for THR 200 Play Production Practicum concurrent with participation.
